Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 9, 2011, NetApp, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Asset Purchase Agreement”) by and between LSI Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“LSI”), and the Company pursuant to which the Company has agreed to acquire certain assets related to LSI’s Engenio external storage system business (the “Engenio Business”). Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Asset Purchase Agreement, as consideration for the Engenio Business, the Company will pay to LSI $480 million in cash and assume specified liabilities related to the Engenio Business.

The Asset Purchase Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants, as well as covenants requiring LSI not to solicit certain employees who will be transferring to the Company for a period of one year from the closing of the transaction (the “Closing”) and not to compete with the Engenio Business for a period of three years following the Closing. Subject to certain exceptions and limitations, each party has agreed to indemnify the other for breaches of representations, warranties and covenants and other specified matters.

Consummation of the transaction is subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions, including, among other matters, (i) the expiration of the waiting period required under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (ii) absence of any statute or governmental order prohibiting or preventing the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement, (iii) receipt of certain contractual consents, (iv) the accuracy of the representations and warranties and compliance with the covenants set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement, each in all material respects, (v) the absence of any material adverse effect on the Engenio Business and (vi) the execution and delivery of specified ancillary agreements.

Either party may terminate the Asset Purchase Agreement if the Closing has not occurred by July 31, 2011, provided that the party seeking termination is not then in breach of any material respect of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Asset Purchase Agreement. The Asset Purchase Agreement is subject to certain other customary provisions permitting termination by the parties.

The foregoing description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Asset Purchase Agreement, a copy of which will be filed with the Company’s next annual report on Form 10-K.
